

Desegregation

Issues Discussed

By Educators

Approximately 75 school administrators, including principals, superintendents and board members, representing 41 systems of a 20-county area, met on the UTMB campus October 31 from 3 to 9 p.m. in the first of a series of eight meetings dealing with problems of school desegregation.

Dr. Glenn S. Gallien, co-ordinator for the programs which are being financed under projects of Title IV of Civil Rights Acts of 1964, presided at the meeting. Chancellor Paul Meek welcomed the group.

Dr. Truman Pierce, dean of the College of Education, Auburn University, Auburn, Alabama, was the principal speaker.

Consultants for the group discussion period included, Dr. Marie Barry from the U.S. Office of Education, Washington, D.C.; Dr. Fred P. Venditti, Dr. Arthur Dally and Miss Ada Edwards from U - T College of Education, Knoxville; Dr. Karl Keefer and Dr. Dean Butler from U - T - MSU Graduate School, Memphis, and Maurice Field, Miss Louise Hunt, James Hadden, Dr. Kenneth McCracken and Thel Taylor of the UTMB Department of Education.

The group had dinner in the cafeteria in the University Center. The November 28 meeting will be held on the UTMB campus.

Dr. Glenn S. Gallien, Education Department Head, welcomes secondary educators, launching a series of meetings on school desegregation.

Univ. Name Change Resolution Passed

A resolution recommending that the name of the division of the University at Martin be changed from The University of Tennessee Martin Branch to the University of Tennessee at Martin was approved by the Student Government Tuesday night.

The action was taken at a banquet given for the Student Government officers by Chancellor and Mrs. Paul Meek in the New Gym. A new name for this division of the University has been under consideration for several years.

In order to change the name of the division at Martin it will be necessary for the state legislature to pass a law that would designate its new name and repeal the law that gave it the name of "Martin Branch." The resolution will be presented to President Andrew D. Holt when he makes his visit to the campus for Homecoming.

Both Chancellor and Mrs.

Meek praised the Student Government and challenged those present to make more progress than ever. They also stated that their acquaintances with students have been the highlights of their lives.

Other honored guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Watkins, Miss Mary Ida Flowers, Dean and Mrs. H.B. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Austin.

QUEEN TO BE CROWNED AT HALF TIME

Bon-Fire Ignites Tennessee Spirit

Homecoming activities will begin Friday evening, Nov. 4, with a bon-fire and pep rally, followed by the traditional tug-of-war between the fraternities on campus. The bon-fire and pep rally will take place at 7 p.m.

In addition to some 2800 students on campus, scores of alumni and friends will be present to take part in the Homecoming celebrations.

HOMEcoming activities for Sat., Nov. 5, will begin at nine a.m. with the Alumni Registration in the ground floor lobby of the Administration Building. Advance tickets for the luncheon and game will be made available at this time. Registration is important for alumni who plan to take advantage of the reserve seating area. Alumni who plan to attend the luncheon should make reservations in advance.

THE Board of Directors meeting will be the first for the newly elected director of our Alumni Association. There are three board members representing each of the six departments on campus. The first item of business will be the election of officers for the coming year. One item requiring special attention will be the proposed change in the name of our institution. A resolution has been prepared for presentation to the board to change the official name of our institution from the University of Tennessee Martin Branch to the University of Tennessee at Martin. If approved by the board, it will be presented to President A.D. Holt and University trustee, Wayne Fisher, at the Homecoming luncheon.

The reunion of the Class of '65, is in charge and has made a special effort to insure a successful reunion.

THE HOMEcoming Parade will begin at 11 a.m. Any organization that has representation in the Student Government may enter a float. Decorated cars may be entered by anyone. Both floats and cars will be judged on originality and manner of presentation. Copies of specifications and rules are available for those who are interested in entering competition. Homecoming trophies will be awarded to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each division.

The UTMB Marching Band will host bands visiting the campus from nine West Tennessee high schools. Participating in Homecoming activities will be Central High School Band, Bruceton; Grove High School Band, Paris; Camden Central High School Band, Camden; Dyersburg High School Band, Dyersburg; Stigall High School Band, Humboldt; Ripley High School Band, Ripley; Martin High

'Ole Miss' Student Editor Makes Issue Of Ticket

Mississippi (CPS) — Millions of university-issued parking tickets across the country may now be worthless. In a precedent-setting case, the prosecution of a Mississippi State University student for refusing to pay his campus tickets has been dismissed.

Leslie C. Cohen, a Canadian political science student at MSU, balked when the academic institution imposed $20 in parking fines without a hearing.

WHEN THE University threatened him with dismissal and state court action unless fines were paid, Cohen went to the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee of the American Civil Liberties Union.

The LCDC secured a restraining order to prevent MSU officials from impeding Cohen's efforts to gain admission to a Canadian Law school. Cohen feared that the University would delay sending his records, would note the parking violations on his record or would not allow him to take a necessary summer session course at Mississippi State.

The LCEC subsequently challenged the constitutionality of the Mississippi statute under which the University justified its regulations. The statute granted to the State Board of Institutions of Higher Learning the power to create regulations which are municipal in effect, the LCDC charged.

WHILE THE case was before the U.S. District Court, the State Attorney General, representing the University, conceded that the regulations which were promulgated by MSU and their manner of enforcement were null and void.

The University dropped its charges against Cohen and the Mississippi statute came under the consideration of a three-judge federal court.

Five New SG Committies Are Appointed

Student Government President, Bill Milliken appointed five committees at the Senate meeting Tuesday night, November 1.

Appointed to the Committee on rules were Donald Ray High Marilyn Counce, Adrenne Adams, and Steve Davis; the Committee on Appropriations — Nickey Dunagan, Nancy Neese, Pat Taylor, and Roy Cook; Committee on Constitution and Appointment Houston Gordon, Allen Bridges, Bob Page, and Kay Liggett; Committee on Administration and Student Relations — Ray Goehing, Pat Murphy, Charles Plunkett, and Kay Williams; Committee of Student Activities — Bill Neese, Wanda McKee, David Reed, and Linda Caldwell.

In other business the Senators elected three new officers. They are Paul Blaylock, Parliamentarian; Larry Alexander, Sergeant at Arms; and David Burkhead, Chaplain.

Nickey Dunagan and Gene Harding were appointed to serve on the Election Commission until the time of their graduation.

Chancellor Meek; Student Government President Bill Milliken, and Cabinet members view the proposed University name-change resolution.

GI Bill Veterans Meet Tomorrow

Wallace R. Maples, Admission, Counselor, reported that instances have occurred in which payment of Educational Assistance Allowance is being delayed because the Enrollment Certification has not been received by the Veterans Administration of one copy of the completed Enrollment Certification.

Apparently, these veterans are neglecting to furnish these forms to the school. Mr. Maples urges all veterans to take their Certificate of Eligibility which is sent to eligible veterans and is presented in duplicate to the schools for completion and return to the Veterans Administration of one copy of the completed Enrollment Certification.

All veterans attending the University of Tennessee under the GI Bill are requested to attend a meeting at 12 o'clock November 4 in Room 112 of the Administration Building.

Caravan Of Stars Perform Nov. 17

Tuesday night, Student Government President Bill Milliken, announced that the Dick Clark Caravan of Stars had been contracted to perform on Thursday, November 17. The performance will be in the Fieldhouse, starting at 8:30 p.m.

Featured will be Gary Lewis and the Playboys, Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs, The Yardbirds, Bobby Hebb, Brian Hyland, Jimmy Clanton, The Angels and The Jokers.

Tickets may be purchased from any Student Senator or Student Government officer, Collicott Shop, and Bennett's Men Store. Tickets are $2.50 advance and $3.00 at the door. In order to be assured of a seat, you should get your ticket early.

Political Clubs Hold Debate On Senate Race

Hours before the general election, representatives of the two political organizations on campus will debate the issue in the Frank Clement-Howard Baker Senatorial race at a joint meeting of the College Young Republican Club and the newly organized College Democrats Club.

THE debate will be held Monday at 7:00 o'clock in room 223 of the Administrative Building.

Charles Hughes, CYRC president and chairman of the Local Young Tennesseans for Baker will team with his club's vice president, Ken Yager to oppose CYDC president Charles Farmer and the club's vice president, Cathy Rudd.

THE GENERAL public as well as all students are invited to attend.

Both of the political organizations will hold meetings following the debate. Young Republicans will meet in room 222 of the Administration Building to discuss future plans.

THE YOUNG Democrats will remain in room 223 to meet for the election of a treasurer and two directors. All prospective members have been urged to attend both to participate in the election and to have their names added to the club membership roster.

Food Rush Kills Chivalry

BY CHARLES FARMER

We must beg the indulgence this week of the majority of students. For it is a small minority to whom we speak.

Would you believe that we're going to take a page of Amy Vanderbilt's book and present a comprehensive study of Etiquette? Well, would you believe we're going to talk about villains who crash cafeteria lines? Yes, children, such is case.

THE LONG lines which thrice daily form at our cafeteria are composed by captive students, more or less; that is, those who live in the dorms must eat in the cafeteria.

Ours is not the lot of a connoisseur and we make no attempt to discuss the quality of the cafeteria's food, only the adverse conditions involved in getting it. Be that as it may, it is frustrating to either be trampled or to get caught in a continuous cycle which places one in the rear of the line.

MORE POWERFUL and often (beg ya pardon, fellows) slightly less than mannerly, the fellows generally do most of the line breaking. For sooth, chivalry-expecting ladies get most perturbed at such manifestations of inobility.

It's really difficult to say anything about a topic such as this. After all, breaking lines and pushing people around is something you don't expect to find among college students. But how about a little consideration and courtesy in the cafeteria and an adherence to the old democratic procedure of "First Come-First Served."

Coast Guard OCS Offers Opportunity

College seniors or graduates can fulfill their military obligation as officers in the U.S. Coast Guard. Qualified applicants are notified of selection for Officer Candidate School before they enlist.

OCS classes convene in September and February at the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in historic Yorktown, Virginia. There the carefully selected college graduates receive 17 weeks of intensive, highly specialized training. Upon graduation they are commissioned as en-signs in the Coast Guard Reserve and serve on active duty for three years. Those qualified may be offered flight training.

COAST GUARD officers received the same pay and benefits as officers of other Armed Forces. Included are 30 days of annual leave and free medical and dental care.

Peacetime duties of the Coast Guard include law enforcement, search and rescue, oceanographic research, marine safety, and the maintenance of aids to navigation.

Roundtable Discussions Are Made Up Of Squares

BY CATHY RUDD

Why are so few American women capable of accepting a compliment gracefully?

Why is it that no one ever includes himself when he speaks of the "mass?"

Does anyone know where hotel and nightclub doormen in congested neighborhoods actually park all those cars?

Why don't most people with the courage of their convictions try to get some better convictions?

If the best things in life really are free, why does it cost so much to learn and accept this simple fact?

Why do we say "I wasn't provoked" when we are provoked by anger or vanity or greed into disclosing what we really are?

When will the man who is forever trying to prove he is a man ever realize that his efforts only succeed in giving the impression that he feels like a boy who doesn't quite believe he is a man?

What is there about a "Gentleman's Agreement" which makes us do things we otherwise wouldn't buy at half the price?

Why do so many vegetables, even in the best restaurants, taste as if they were prepared by a chef who quit yesterday in a pique?

Why is it that so many women who can't seem to have children seem to be precisely the kind who would make the most ideal mothers, while on the other hand...

Can't that dreadful phrase, "mental hygiene," be replaced with something more human-sounding and less like a smug chapter heading in a social worker's casebook?

Why is it that the American male, who is obsessed with pictures and statistics of bosoms, is invariably shocked or repelled by a foreign woman begin breast-feeding her child in a public place? (Could this mean that our culture is fantastically pro-breast—except when it is being used for the purpose nature intended?)

Wouldn't it be nice to have an "Operation Cessation" to stop all this verbal nonsense about "Operation Blue" and "Operation Flat?"

Why is it that people who are fond of prefacing their remarks with "In my humble opinion," aren't humble enough not to offer their opinion?

And, to repeat one of my favorite all-time perplexities, why are round-table discussions so often made up of squares?

More Sophistication Found In Rock 'n' Roll: Mancini

BY CATHY RUDD

Stunned elders to whom rock'n'roll is an ear-splitting racket of no-talent honks and thunders have no ally in Henry Mancini.

"I'm not at all unhappy about the direction of music today," says the pianist, conductor, and thrice-Oscar composer.

"In rock'n'roll there recently has been a deeper approach than just blues shouting. More sophistication. A few years ago you rarely heard a good melody from any of these groups.

NOW THERE'S, for example, "Yesterday," the Beatles' song, and their "Money Can't Buy You Love." It's like a swing song of the 40's.

Isn't rock'n'roll just a lot of noise?

"NOT IN all cases. Some things the Rolling Stones do are interesting."

Mancini, 42, Cleveland-born of Italian Ancestry, is tall and dark and a casual dresser—he wore a sweater and loafers to a rooftop restaurant in a building where his 10th-floor office looks down on Hollywood and Vine.

HE WON his Academy Awards for scoring "Breakfast at Tiffany's" and melodies of "Moon River" and "Days of Wine and Roses."

His five nominations include scoring "The Pink Panther" and the songs "Charade" and "Dear Heart." His television Emmy nomination was for the "Peter Gunn" theme. The recording industry has given him 17 Grammy awards.

"COLLEGE audiences are my favorites," Mancini reported. "They're the most responsive and knowledgeable."

He has just done six Midwestern college concerts with 40 musicians, playing his own works, Victor Young's, and Dave Rose's and getting standing ovations.

MANCINI left recently for Rio to judge an international song contest. In London next month he will score a new film and give a royal variety performance November 14 at the Palladium.

Mancini does his composing at home but only, he said, "When they push the button"—meaning, give him a film assignment.

IN THE next Oscar awards, he thinks, his likeliest contender is "In the Arms of Love" from the movie "What Did You Do in the War, Daddy?"

MANCINI has three teenagers at home whose musical favorites are "I think, still the Beatles."

Texas Students Take Complaint To New Class

AUSTIN, Tex. (CPS) — If you have complaints about your education, take them to class.

That is what a group of University of Texas students will be doing this term when they enroll in a newly instituted course on the educational process.

THE COURSE, a non-credit seminar led by assistant professor of psychology Dr. Thomas Friedman, will allow students to examine systematically the education they are receiving. The course will have no set content and students can initiate discussion on any aspect of education — from the value of grades to teacher training.

"We have no sacred cow," Dr. Friedman said. "As I see the seminar, it will be an opportunity for some of us to back off and take a look at what we are going through, what the problems are, and what some of the long term trends and solutions may be."

The interdisciplinary course will have no exams or grades, but students will complete a research project.

10 percent of every government loan.

Under commercial loan programs, students borrow directly from banks or loan companies, instead of their colleges. Interest rates are held at six percent, although commercial rates range from six-and-one-half to eight percent.

WHILE A student attends college, the federal government pays the interest, then pays three percent when studies are completed. Thus the cost to students for loans at commercial banks is equivalent to that under the government NDEA program.

Since the Bankers Association drive, limited reports reveal some increases in student loans, Smith said. New York state banks have increased loans by 25 percent; Massachusetts banks have tripled their outlay; and New Jersey Metropolitan areas have serviced more loans in August than in all of last year.

In areas where loans have not been granted to students before, such as Miami, Washington, D.C. and coastal areas of New Jersey, banks are not cooperating with the student loan program.

ON THE whole, of the nation's 14,000 member banks of ABA, 7,000 banks, representing 75 percent of the nation's total banking assets, participate in student loan programs.

The loan shortage might have been intensified, had Congress accepted President Johnson's proposed revisions for the federal student loan program.

Last January, President Johnson urged eliminating the NDEA program and establishing government backing to banks for more student loans.

Student Loan Applications Out-Pace Available Supply

WASHINGTON (CPS) — Despite expansion of student loan programs by Congress and private sources, mounting student applications for loans have out-paced the available supply of funds, a Collegiate Press Service study has revealed.

The House of Representatives voted in May to grant $190 million for student loans under the National Defense Education Act. The Senate Appropriations Committee recently approved this increase over last year's $179 million, but the full Senate has not voted on it yet.

IN THE commercial sector, the American Bankers Association (ABA) initiated a campaign last June to persuade bankers to increase student loans. Financial institutions, which lent nearly $150 million last year to students, are expected to provide up to $400 million this year.

The shortage in funds is due to soaring college enrollment, not to fewer bank loans, according to the ABA's legislative counsel, James Smith. College enrollment for 1966 is estimated by the Office of Education at six million, a ten percent increase over last year.

But as enrollment grows, colleges must expand, and over three-fourths of American colleges and universities have recently raised tuition and board, according to surveys by the Life Insurance Management Association.

TUITION and room fees for at least 25 schools are $3,000, and costs are expected to rise.

Possible cheating in loan applications may account for some increases in requests. Parents may be borrowing money through their children because of low interest rates granted to students, Smith said.

Meanwhile, other parents have sold their stocks to obtain money, despite a twenty percent drop in stock market prices over the last months, and some students will work this year instead of joining the class of '70, according to Smith.

UNDER THE NDEA student loan act, undergraduates can borrow up to $1,000, and graduate students can receive $2,500 yearly, not to exceed $10,000 for undergraduate and graduate study combined.

Students pay no interest on loans while in school, and only three percent after graduation.

Federal allocations, divided among states on the basis of school enrollment and requests, are granted to students through financial aid offices of colleges. Schools must match government funds by providing

SG Justices Appointed

Recently appointed to serve as Justices of the judicial branch of Student Government were Jerry Bussell, Chief Justice; and Jimmy Atchison, Jo Ann Cobb, Hollis Large, and Cathy Rudd, Associate Justices.

The duties of the Student Court include giving hearings to any student or organization who has brought discredit upon himself or the University of Tennessee at Martin, or has violated any policy or law of the University. After hearing the cases, disciplinary action is administered by the court.

The Judicial Branch of Student Government has jurisdiction to hear and decide all matters pertaining to the Constitution and other laws or resolutions passed by the Student Senate.

The Student Court hears all matters of student discipline as delegated by the administration and its decisions on all matters of discipline are final except when the decision in dismissal from the University. The decision to dismiss is a student may be appealed to the Administrative Council of the University of Tennessee at Martin.

Martin Students Attend Retreat

Thirty-one UTMB students attended the Tennessee Baptist Student Convention in Jackson last weekend. Leaving at 5:00 Friday 28, the group along with director, Bob Harvey, set out for a very enjoyable trip.

The theme of the convention was entitled, "Learn of Me" with guest speakers, Mr. Robert A. Hinepon from Western Reserve University in Cleveland and Mr. Robert Denny, associate Secretary of the Baptist World Alliance. Leading the singing was Mr. Russell E. Newport, a graduate of Harvard who has twice appeared as a guest on the Ed Sullivan show.

New Leader Appointed At BSU

BY JANET McCARTER

Bob Harvey, the new Baptist Student Union director is a recent migrant to the South from the Western United States. Recently, he was called by the Arizona State BSU Student Work Director to take the appointment in Martin. He accepted this job and moved here on September 23rd from the University of Arizona where he was also Baptist Student Union director.

After receiving his B. A. from Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, New Mexico in 1961, he attended Golden Gate Seminary where he received his Degree in Master of Religious Education. While at the Seminary he also met his wife who is a Registered Nurse. Then in 1966 he received his Masters Degree in Education from the University of Arizona.

WHAT really does a BSU director do? Mr. Harvey said, "My responsibility is several things, first to act as a leader of the students both as a service to the University and to the various Baptist churches in the community. Also in this service to the University, our job is to aid in the spiritual, mental, and physical strengthening of the lives of the young people."

His love for Martin is expressed in his work for Central Baptist Church where he is a member and his full participation in the Baptist Church work on campus and in the community.

Alpha Gamma Rho Donates Scholarship From Sack Lunches

Sack lunches will be sold Saturday during Homecoming by the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. All profits from the sales will be contributed to the General Scholarship Fund for use in freshman scholarships.

The concession will be located at the corner of University and Lovelace Streets.

Each lunch, which will include two sandwiches, potato chips, a candy bar, and a soft drink will sell for $1.00.

Alpha Gamma Rho currently gives one $150,000 scholarship to an incoming freshman in agriculture. The money raised from the sack lunches will be unrestricted and available to any incoming freshman, meeting the requirements of the Scholarship Committee.

Chi Omega Eleusinia Held Friday Evening

Chi Omega's fall buffet and dance was held Friday night at the Union City Country Club.

After the banquet, the fall pledge class entertained with a skit. The Escapades from Jackson played for the remainder of the evening.

The theme for the evening was "Autumn Leaves." This was carried out through the table decorations. The favors were decks of red and gold playing cards.

Social chairman, Linda Jessup, sophomore in home economics from Union City, and Mary Elizabeth Fields, sophomore in education from South Fulton, guided the pledges in preparing the social.

ATO's Pledge 41, Install Six Brothers

ATO pledges 41 rushees after much hard work during fall rush. Rush, this year, reached one of its highest peak ever for the Tau's.

Among those pledged were: Jerry Replogle, Mike Young, Hal Rector, Buddy Holmes, Roger Phillips, Bill Munley, Terry Griffith, Rick Kincaid, Chip Ledgewood, Jim Conner, Bob Bailey, Bob Palmer, David Warren, Joe Delogier, Jerry Smith, Mike Lamb, Bubba Pennel, David Sills, Ben Ragan, Tommy Welborn, Jack Hurley, Jim Liles, Charlie Cartwright, Dan Frazer, Bob Bishop, Reese Smith, Bill Hammond, Dicky Arrington, Rick Watkins, Dale Chance, Fred Powell, Steve Weaver, Don Barcus, Charlie Overton, Robert Smity, Irvin Fentress, and George Gruggett.

The Tau's gained six new brothers and one social affiliate. Four of the new brothers were initiated from last year's Spring Quarter pledge class. They are: Johnny Cole, Jackson; Tommy Mann, Hoenwald; Gerald White, Alamo; and Calvin Dunagan, Friendship. The new social affiliate is Ron Kirkland from Union City. The two other new brothers are: Curtis Hancock, affiliate from the Mu Iota Chapter of ATO at the University of Kentucky; and William Milton, a charter member of Zeta Pi Chapter here at Martin.

All together, the pledges and actives number 65. The Zeta Pi Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega has grown since last year. They are continuing to grow and striving to improve their chapter, campus life, grades, and to obtain higher standards of student-ship on campus.

we've had in a long while. He's aggressive and has a good head."

Eckert was named All-USAC as a pitcher. Last year as a freshman, Eckert posted a 3-1 conference mark and had a remarkable .87 earned run average. His only defeat was against Union University 4-3. The Bulldog's winning run was unearned.

At the plate Eckert paced the team with a torrid .460 batting average.

Both men are secondary education majors and members of Phi Sigma Kappa Fraternity.

AOPi Pledge Meeting Crashed By Actives

On October 2, the pledges and actives of Alpha Omicron Pi attended the First Methodist Church for the first activity of the sorority since rush.

At the next pledge meeting, several more pledges were elected to offices. They were: Anita McMurthy from Memphis as standards' chairman; Gloria Howell from Memphis, public relations chairman; and Pam Swift from Nashville, parliamentarian.

One October 18, the activities of the chapter crashed the pledge meeting supplied with cokes and a birthday cake, to celebrate the first birthday of AOPi on this campus. From that Tuesday night to the next Thursday, the actives switched with the pledges for obtaining pledge points. All points earned by big sisters were turned over to their little sisters.

The pledges are selling sandwiches in the girls' dorms as a money making project. These sandwiches are sold from 9 to 10 p.m. and cost 25¢.

Grenadiers Sponsor Enemy Auto As 'Spirit Car'

The Grenadier Society is sponsoring a "spirit car from Troy State" through Homecoming at the corner of University and Lovelace Streets.

Anyone may show his spirit and discharge his aggression against the Homecoming rival by battering the auto with a sledge hammer three times for only a quarter.

In addition to building up enthusiasm for the coming game, this project will provide money to pay for the trips to the drill meets that the Grenadier attend. This type of project has proved successful on other campuses throughout the nation and all students are invited to "nit themselves against the enemy."

Three Profs. Will Participate In Folklore Prog.

When the Tennessee Folklore Society holds its 32nd annual meeting at Tennessee Tech in Cookeville next week, November 4-5, three UTMB professors will appear on the program, each representing a different aspect of folklore... art, music and literature.

PROFESSOR Emeritus Harry Harrison Kroll of the English Department will give an illustrated lecture, "Primitive Subjects In Oil," using his own oil paintings to highlight the points he makes concerning Tennessee primitives.

MISS Aaltje Van Denburg, associate professor of Home Economics, will sing to her own accompaniment on the dulcimer and autoharp some folksongs; and Mrs. Mildred Y. Payne, assistant professor of English, will present a paper, FOLK ELEMENTS IN MILTON'S "COMUS."

Mr. Wayne Keene will attend as a folklore fan.

School Band; McKenzie High School Band; and the Union City High School Band. At half-time, these bands will join efforts in a medley of patriotic songs, under the direction of Mr. E.J. Eaton.

SPEAKERS at the Homecoming Luncheon in the New Fieldhouse will be President Holt and Chancellor Meek. There will be special recognition for the classes of '31, '36, '41, '46, '51, and '56.

At 2 p.m. the Vols will meet the Troy State Red Wave on the gridiron. During half-time Dr. Holt will crown the 1966 Homecoming Queen, Linda Workman.

The after game coffee hour honoring Dr. and Mrs. Meek will be held in the new University Center. The coffee is sponsored by the Alumni Association and all alumni are invited. Rumor has it that Dr. Meek will take down some barriers and conduct a tour of the building.

posed the President's measure, and said they could not support the government's insured loan plan and their own student loan program.

"Federal insurance of student bank loans is of no consequence," Mr. Smith of ABA said. Banks would still not have the funds for both programs.

STATES and private organizations, such as the United Student Aid Fund, insure private student loan programs now.

Representative Edith Green (D.-Ore.), chairman of the House education subcommittee, accepted the bankers' arguments and called the President's proposal premature.

The administration withdrew its proposal and suggested extending the federal program for another year with a $29 million cut in appropriations.

The House and Senate Committee rejected this proposal, and increased the loan program.

Murray State Pikes

Hustle Pigskin Here

Prior to Saturday's football contest, the Pikes of Murray State ran the game ball to UTMB in keeping with the custom of the past.

Escorted by police and officials of the Highway Patrol, the team of runners left Murray at 7 A.M., Saturday and reached Martin shortly after noon. UTMB's Pikes, along with their fire engine, met the runners just outside of town and escorted the team to the chapter house.

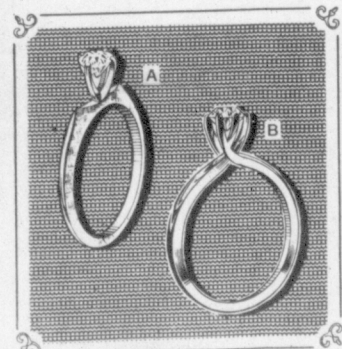

For the last four years, UTMB and Murray State have alternately run the distance to each school so next year it will be up to Epsilon Sigma to again return to Thoroughbred country.

Mr. O.O. Palmer, a new addition to UTMB's social science department, has agreed to become sponsor of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Mr. Palmer, a psychology professor, fills the vacancy left by Maj. Milton Killen, who was transferred from UTMB's ROTC department and is now serving in Viet Nam.

Epsilon Sigma officially welcomed Mr. Palmer in a meeting Thursday night. The Pikes are looking forward to the months ahead, and hope he will remain for years to come.

Iowa Student Wins Revue Of Non-Resident Status

(ACP) — A University of Iowa student who challenged the system of non-resident tuition won his case, but the scope of the federal court is uncertain, the Iowa State Daily reports.

George Clarke, 22-year-old law student, claimed he should pay lower resident tuition fees because he had married an Iowa woman, pays Iowa taxes, votes in Iowa and testified he would practice law in Iowa when he graduates.

The three-judge federal court ruled that the university tuition system is legal but is perhaps too rigidly enforced.

While the decision in Clark's test case did not upset the tuition system in Iowa's three state-operated schools, it is expected to spark comment and possibly changes at the October meeting of the State Board of Regents.

The court panel decided that Clarke, who moved from Elmwood, Ill., in 1965, had presented a sound case for resident status. Current policy governing residence determination, set solely by the Regents, says an out-of-state woman who marries an Iowa resident becomes a resident herself for tuition purposes, but the same does not apply to an out-of-state man who marries an Iowa woman.

The judge said, however, that if this is a definite rule, "It would probably constitute a constitutional violation...."

Volunteers Hang On Whip Murray 16-12

The Vols staved off a fourth quarter rally by Murray State to edge the visitors 16-12 here Saturday night.

IT WAS UTMB's second straight triumph of the season and also the second time in six years the Vols have licked Murray.

The Thoroughbreds came into the contest 18-point underdogs, and the first half of play the Orangemen held MSU scoreless and posted 16-points on the scoreboard.

MARTIN leaped to an early lead with little over three minutes gone in the initial period. Senior tailback Mack Moody fielded an MSU punt on his own 45 and dodged and danced his way 55-yards for the score. Lee Mayo's stung of point-after kicks was broken when his boot went wide to the left.

Minutes later quarterback Allan Cox threw a perfect 12-yard strike to Moody in the end zone only to have the play nullified by a penalty. Unable to punch across a six-pointer, the Orangemen settled for Lee Mayo's fifth field-goal of the year. His 44-yard kick set a UTMB record for College Field. Mayo has footed three-pointers of 28 and 29, and two of 51-yards this year.

THE Volunteers fumbled away another scoring chance in the second stanza. Martin recovered an MSU bobble of a punt on the Thoroughbred 40. The Orange offense drove to the one-yard stripe when fullback Bobby Hayes lost the ball on a fumble.

Completely dominating the first half of play UTMB held the Kentuckians to only 39-yards total offense in the first two periods.

RAY GEDDINGS smothered a second MSU fumble on the Murray 28-yard line. Three plays later another Cox to Moody aerial from the 12 paid off in six points. Mayo added the point to make it 16-0 UTMB going into the fourth period.

COMPLETELY frustrated, the Thoroughbred's went to the air to tally two T-D's in the closing minutes of the game.

Riding on the arm of quarterback Larry Tillman,

MSU drove from their own 29 to a first-and-goal at Martin's three. With third down and a yard to go, half to go, halfback Terry Croom bulled over from the one. An attempted two-point conversion failed to leave the score 16-6.

WITH LESS than five-minutes to play, the Thoroughbreds cranked-up a drive from their 48. A 15-yard penalty and another aerial put the ball on the UT-31. Fullback John Bryant carried to the 29 where the MSU offense faltered. With fourth down and less than a yard to go, Croom romped for 16-yards and first down and Phillip Hunt snagged Tillman's T-D toss to put the score 16-12 UTMB. Another two-point conversion failed and the Orangemen hung on to preserve the lead.

THE STONEWALL defensive line continued to stymie opponents on the ground. MSU was held to only 68-yards rushings. The remainder of their 202 total offensive yards came on passes.

Jim Wiggins paced Vol ball carriers with 60-yards on 17-carries. Larry Shanks and Bobby Hayes each had 42 and 48-yards respectively.

Saturday's win leaves UTMB 3-4 for the year. MSU is now 0-7.

As It Looks From Here

BY BILL BENSON

The Troy State "Red Wave" will roll into College Field Saturday afternoon in UTMB's 1966 Homecoming clash.

This will be meeting number seven for Martin and TSC. The Vols have won all six previous tilts. Always tough against the Orangemen, the "wave" has one of their most impressive array of athletes in a good while. Last fall TSC posted a lowly 1-8 mark, but a new coaching staff an athletic house cleaning has done wonders. This year the Red Wave has won four and lost three. Last weekend they dropped a 14-7 decision to the nation's eighth ranked small college Northwestern Louisiana. Northwest dumped the Vols earlier this year 26-7.

The Alabamans have notched wins over Delta State, Georgia Military Academy, Sanford University, and Livingston State.

Their offense rates among the nation's top five. Sim Byrd, the Red Wave field general, is currently third ranked in total offense in the nation.

TSC lists 12 returnees from last year's team. With a balanced ground-air attack the "Wave" offense utilizes split and winged "T" sets.

The Vols, who are now 3-4, will carry a two-game victory streak into the clash. Hampered last week against Murray by injuries, the Orangemen should be back to almost full strength this weekend.

Defensive halfback Errol Hook is still sidelined with an ankle injury but all other varsity men should be ready to go.

The Big Orange will rely on ball-control to carry the day. Defensively the Vols have given up an average of only 80.3 yards a game rushing while racking up 157 via the turf.

Kicker Lee Mayo still leads in markers with 26. He has hit 11 of 12 point-acters and five of eight field goals. In rushing, tailback Larry Shanks, and running mate, fullback Bobby Hayes have 430 and 413 yards respectively. Speedster Jim Wiggins leads in average with a 6.2 mark on 41 trips.

Game time for the afternoon grid battle is 2:00 P.M.
